

The purpose of the curriculum is to Ensure that students have a good understanding of mathematical concepts in the five mathematical strands of the national curriculum: Number and Operations, Rates and Ratio, Geometry and Measurement, Data and Probability, and Algebra and Functions. Skills that pupils will learn during their curriculum journey that are required for Mathematics: Basic Numeracy skills built on the four operations. Decision making and problem solving. Graphical skills including the selection of appropriate graphs/charts and interpreting the results.